

American Legion Auxiliary Department of Texas

Diana King Biography 2010-2011

Diana King was elected as President of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Texas, on June 27, 2010, at the Department Convention in Beaumont. Eligible for membership through the military service of her husband, Dan King, she has been an active and dedicated member of Edward H. White II Unit 521, Pasadena, since January 29, 1993.

Diana served her Unit as President, Vice President, Secretary, and Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms. At the District level, she served as Secretary and Twenty-Second District President 1998-2000, and chaired the Education, Girls State and Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Committees. Diana served her Division as Secretary numerous times.

At the Department level, Diana served the Department of Texas as Vice President and Historian; and chaired the VA&R, Children & Youth, Community Service, Constitution & Bylaws, Education, and Leadership Committees. In addition, she served as a member of the Americanism and Public Relations Committees. Diana is a member of Salon 705 of the Eight & Forty.

Diana began her professional career as a business education teacher. After the birth of her children, she moved out into the business world, where she provided administrative and secretarial support to various organizations. In 1981, Diana and her family moved from Wabash, Indiana, to Pasadena, Texas. She is currently employed by the office of the Federal Public Defender, Southern District of Texas, where she provides administrative support district-wide.

Diana and Dan have two children, a daughter and a son, and two grandsons and one granddaughter, all of whom are members of The American Legion Family. She is a steadfast supporter of the American Legion Auxiliary and its programs.
